The Entrant warrants that their entry has not been copied, recreated, reproduced or derived from any other work and that the entry does not infringe on any other legal, intellectual property or privacy rights of any third party. The Entrant indemnifies and holds harmless AAC and the Embassy from any and all claims by any third party arising out of the use of the Entrant's entry, including but not limited to claims of infringement or violation of the intellectual property or privacy rights of the third party.
21. The Entrant grants AAC and the Embassy a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide, irrevocable, non-transferable, perpetual licence to use, modify, copy, delete from, add to, publicly display and/or reproduce, the Entrant's entry, in whole or in part, in any medium, now or at any time in the future for any purpose.
22. The Entrant grants AAC and the Embassy the right to use their personal details, likeness, comments and/or entry for promotional purposes without payment of additional consideration, except where prohibited by law. This includes but is not limited to announcing the result of the Competition and publishing the name of the winner on AAC and/or the Embassy's page or website.

Privacy

Australia Awards

23. Personal information associated with the entry and/or winning of the Competition (including, but not limited to, the Entrant's name) will be collected, used and disclosed by AAC and the Embassy for promotional, marketing and publicity purposes in connection with the Competition. This personal information will be stored by AAC and the Embassy on a secure electronic database and will be destroyed once it is no longer required for these purposes. If this information is not collected, AAC will be unable to enter the Entrant into the Competition. For further information regarding how AAC and the Embassy will handle this information, please consult the respective Privacy Policies at: Privacy Statement - Tetra Tech and <http://dfat.gov.au/about-us/about-this-website/pages/privacy.aspx>

Indemnities

24. The Entrant agrees to indemnify, release and hold harmless AAC and the Embassy from any liability, damages, losses or injury resulting in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, from the Entrant's participation in the Competition and the acceptance, use or misuse of any Prize that may be won.
25. AAC and the Embassy are not responsible for content that third parties publish, post, upload, distribute, disseminate or otherwise transmit via social media services. AAC and the Embassy accept no liability whatsoever arising from or connected to the currency, accuracy or completeness of any material posted on social media sites or elsewhere on the internet and disclaims all responsibility for any loss or damage which may arise from the use of information provided via social media services.

Amendments and cancellation

26. AAC reserves the right to, at its absolute discretion and without prior notice, vary, amend, delete or supplement any of these terms and conditions and the Entrant's continued participation in the Competition amounts to acceptance of any revised terms and conditions. The Entrant should check AAC's Facebook page and website on a regular basis for any changes to these terms and conditions. If an Entrant does not agree to a change, they may withdraw from the Competition by sending an email to: alumni@australiaawardscambodia.org
27. AAC reserves the right to, for any reason and without any obligation to state a particular reason, cancel, terminate, modify or suspend the Competition. In the event of such cancellation, termination, modification or suspension, AAC may at its absolute discretion elect not to award any Prize in respect of the Competition. The decision of AAC to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend the Competition will not give rise to any liability to pay compensation of any nature to any Entrants.
28. AAC's decision in relation to any aspect of the Competition is final and binding on every Entrant. No correspondence will be entered into.
